October 2024

Greetings in Christ!

You may find that this month's Minuteman News Magazine is even more "blunt" and hard hitting than most. In this edition, we are covering the "election/selection" farce, plus the unraveling of what's left of the Christian moral fiber that once held America together! You will discover some facts that undeniably prove that, without Divine Intervention, the world is about to see the destruction of WWII! Psalm 9:17 is a warning that is also a promise!

The darkness that is spreading across the globe isn't understood by the masses! Indeed it cannot be! It is a "spiritual" cancer that only those who know Christ as their Redeemer and are asking for His guidance and wisdom can comprehend! Ecclesiastes 1:18 explains why God's redeemed bear the mark of God as revealed in Ezekiel 9:4. Make certain that you exhibit this mark!

Folks, I am not even hinting at setting dates on future events, but I am certain that the consequences of "we", Christians(?) and non-Christians alike ignoring the law of God's Word, are going to increase at an exponential rate. America truly is all but unrecognizable from what it was when I was a child! The utter moral abyss she has fallen in to is staggering for those of my generation to come to grips with! And we have seen nothing yet compared to what is still to come! There is no bottom to this black pit we and the world have fallen into! Christ, by His shed blood and grace, is The only Hope for all who will receive it! Rev. 22:17

Prepare yourselves in Christ now! Just as Noah did, prepare yourselves and your homes for judgment!

We love you all in Christ! Please help us keep the "lights on"!

In Chris's service,
Pastor Butch

Deep State Provoking War Worldwide

By Chuck Baldwin

As I have said repeatedly, there is only one party in Washington, D.C., and it's the War Party. Some people call it the Uniparty. There are two issues that most D.C. Democrats and Republicans will always agree on: War and Israel, but then I repeat myself.

It was the United States, not Russia, that started the war in Ukraine back in 2014. It's not the intent of this column to go into the details of this issue, but notable freedomists such as Judge Andrew Napolitano, Col. Douglas Macgregor, Clayton Morris, Professor Jeffrey Sachs, former British diplomat Alastair Crooke, former Marine Corps Intelligence Officer (Major) and former Chief U.N. Weapons Inspector Scott Ritter, former CIA Analyst Larry Johnson and several others have detailed Washington's nefarious and deliberate provocations of Russia in Ukraine over the last ten years.

Ukraine's Volodymyr Zelensky is nothing more than a U.S. puppet. He doesn't give a hoot in Hades about the Ukrainian people. They are being slaughtered en masse, but Zelensky keeps using his people as cannon fodder anyway. Ukraine is doomed. If Putin wanted to, he could conquer Ukraine before the November elections. The death toll among the Ukrainian population is staggering. Zelensky has already sent young people and prisoners to the battlefield, and now he wants to send old men. And Zelensky is not even president anymore. His term of office expired, and he refused to hold an election. Only a U.S. puppet president could get away with that.

The United States is giving him billions of dollars in CASH to keep its proxy war against Russia going. We also send billions in CASH to Israel's Benjamin Netanyahu. But D.C. is pushing hard to remove cash from the American people. Think about that.

Biden and Harris and the War Party in Congress will fight their proxy war to the last Ukrainian.

It is the Deep State in Washington, D.C., that is doing everything it can to provoke Russia into war with the West. And if they succeed, a nuclear war with Russia would be a war with the country that has the most nuclear warheads of any country in the world.

Then there is the world's most notable warmonger, Israel's Benjamin Netanyahu, who is committing ethnic cleansing and genocide in Gaza. Netanyahu is a top-tier Deep State asset. In addition to Gaza, Netanyahu is attacking the West Bank, Lebanon, Syria and Iran.

Along with Russia, the Deep State is doing everything it can to provoke Iran into a war with the West. But Iran's leaders are not stupid; neither are they impulsive. They know that time is on their side—not Israel's.

As I wrote last week in this column, if Israel continues its warmongering ways, its collapse might not be far away. Israel's economy is in tatters. Hundreds of thousands of Israelis marched in the streets last weekend demanding a ceasefire agreement. The largest labor union in Israel called for a national strike—which is almost unprecedented. Tourism (one of Israel's largest industries) is non-existent. Airlines refuse to fly into Israel. The flow of goods into Israel is only a shadow of what it was (except for the delivery of U.S. bombs and missiles every week). Israelis are fleeing the country by the hundreds of thousands—maybe millions.

Netanyahu believes that his only chance for his personal survival is to provoke Iran into all-out war and force the United States to come to Israel's defense. And he is the Deep State's main man in the Middle East, so it is doing all it can to help Netanyahu succeed.

Think about this, folks: If Netanyahu succeeds in provoking Iran into an all-out war, Israel would positively be destroyed, and if the United States came full force to Israel's defense, it would become a global war with both Russia and China. And that would mean a full-scale nuclear war, which would doubtless annihilate all of the countries involved—including America. It would also mean the almost total shutdown of the distribution of oil coming out of the Middle East. Think about what that would mean for the West.

All of this for the sake of an antichrist, apartheid state about the size of New Jersey.

But most evangelicals are actually salivating over the possibility of a global nuclear war over Israel, as they believe that will signal the "Rapture," and they will be taken to Heaven. Therefore, in truth, evangelicals are NOT supporting Israel; they are using Israel to take them to the "Rapture." Of course, there is no "Rapture." and these deluded evangelicals will endure the consequences of this global incineration along with everyone else.

But I digress.

So, we have the Deep State provoking potential nuclear war with Russia in Europe, provoking potential nuclear war with the world's major powers, including the U.S.,

Russia and China, in the Middle East, and now D.C. decides to provoke Venezuela into open hostilities.

While Joe Biden was sunbathing on the beach over the Labor Day weekend, D.C. seized Venezuela's equivalent of its Air Force One jetliner.

Jared Yanis posted a short video with the report of the U.S. seizing Venezuela's presidential jet. Venezuela's president Nicolas Maduro was not on the plane when it was seized.

Now, I have zero empathy for the thuggish dictator Maduro, but here goes D.C. again trying to provoke another country into a conflagration.

Do you think it is a coincidence that we are hearing reports of violent Venezuelan gangs operating in the United States at the same time that D.C. decides to seize the Venezuelan version of Air Force One?

Biden's criminal policy to not just allow but also finance and facilitate tens of millions of illegals into the United States (using primarily an Israeli NGO called Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society that receives hundreds of millions of taxpayer dollars—in CASH) includes thousands of gang members from Venezuela. Many of these gang members were released from prison by Maduro and sent to Biden's open arms in America. These are ruthless, violent men who are now roaming the streets and bringing their violent criminal behavior to U.S. cities.

I'm sure most people reading this column are already aware of the criminal activities of the Venezuelan gang Tren de Aragua in Denver, Colorado, and surrounding cities, such as Aurora.

Here is a FOX News report out of Aurora:

Mayor Mike Coffman announced on Friday that the city is starting the process of clearing the apartment buildings where transnational armed gang Tren de Aragua has taken over.

In a statement posted to Facebook, Coffman shared "the Aurora City Attorney's Office is preparing court documents to request an emergency court order to clear the apartment buildings where Venezuelan gang activity has been occurring by declaring the properties a 'Criminal Nuisance.'"

"This will require a municipal judge to issue the order with the goal of getting these properties back under the control of the property owners. In the meantime, the law enforcement task force set up to disrupt and arrest Venezuelan gang members in these buildings will continue its operation. I strongly believe that the best course of action is to shut these building[s] down and make sure that this never happens again," concluded Coffman.

One has already been picked up. In an email to Fox News Digital, Aurora Police Department confirmed that Tren de Aragua leader "Cookie Monster" is currently in custody in relation to a shooting on July 28.

Fox 31 reports that the men seen in the video that has gone viral are armed members of the Tren de Aragua gang, according to Department of Homeland Security sources.

It took a courageous city councilwoman by the name of Danielle Jurinsky to blow the lid off by publicly reporting the criminal activity of the Venezuelan gang taking place in her city. The pro-illegal invasion governor of Colorado, Jared Polis, said the gang violence was "largely a feature of Danielle Jurinsky's imagination."

As you know, Denver is a sanctuary city.

And here is a brief video regarding the safety precautions that churches in the Denver area need to take to protect themselves from potential violence from this Venezuelan gang.

Former Border Patrol Agent in Charge J. J. Carrell has meticulously described the Venezuelan gang activity in Chicago, Illinois. We have also heard numerous reports of Venezuelan gang activity in New York City.

So, now that the Venezuelan gang Tren de Aragua has thousands of gang members living and operating in U.S. cities, the Deep State decides to seize the Venezuelan president's jet. Just a coincidence, right?

U.S. government officials said that seizing Venezuela's Air Force One was sending a signal that "no one is above the law."

What a crock! Washington, D.C., is loaded with lawbreakers, and I don't mean the ones walking the streets. I'm talking about the ones sitting in Congress and the White House. That's where the real criminal activity is taking place.

What the Deep State did was wave a bull fighter's red muleta in front of a bull. It is provoking the Venezuelan gang members in the U.S. into violence against the American people—as if they needed any provocation.

Once again, the Deep State is doing what it does best: provoking war all over the world and even within our own country.

And there is one more thing the Deep State does well, and that's selecting the president and most members of Congress.

You still don't know who they are?

Are They Trying To Start World War 3 Before The Election In November?

MICHAEL SNYDER

Events in the Middle East and in Ukraine are bringing us dangerously close to the unthinkable, but meanwhile most people in the western world are paying very little attention to what is going on. We literally have not been this close to an apocalyptic global war since the end of World War 2, and yet most of the population is partying. Unfortunately, it won't be too long before they are shaken out of their slumber.

On Sunday, it was being reported that a Ukrainian drone has hit a facility in Russia that houses one of the highly sophisticated nuclear missiles that Russia has started to produce...

A Ukrainian kamikaze drone strike reportedly struck Vladimir Putin's Satan-2 nuclear missile, prompting an apocalyptic explosion yesterday morning.

A secret ammunition silo facility at Toropets in Tver region that housed one of the Russian President's nuke missiles was hit by Ukrainian drone, it was claimed yesterday.

It allegedly happened just ten miles from an 'indestructible' 30,000 ton munitions storage site that had been obliterated on Wednesday.

It is literally insane to use kamikaze drones to attack nuclear missiles.

But that is the entire point.

The Ukrainians are losing the war, and so they are desperately trying to provoke an "over the top" reaction from the Russians that will force NATO to get directly involved in the fighting.

And they need to do it before the U.S. presidential election in November, because if Trump wins he fully intends to try to end the war.

So that is why the Ukrainians just attacked a nuclear missile. They are in a race against time.

Of course Ukraine does not have the ability to identify strategic targets deep inside Russia.

As far as these long-range drone attacks are concerned, we frequently pick the targets, and in many cases we actually guide weapons to their targets.

But we aren't really supposed to talk about that.

Now Ukraine wants permission to use long-range missiles provided by us to strike targets all over Russia...

Volodymyr Zelenskyy has urged Joe Biden to allow Ukraine to carry out long-range strikes inside Russia with US-supplied weapons, and to earn "a place in history" by "strengthening Ukraine" before he leaves office.

Speaking before a crucial trip next week to Washington, where he will meet Biden and the US vice-president and presidential nominee, Kamala Harris, and address the UN, Zelenskyy said he would present a "victory plan" to end the war.

This could easily spark World War 3, because it would cross very important "red lines" that the Russians have established.

Russian Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrov has once again stressed the importance of not crossing those "red lines"...

"We talk about red lines, expecting that our assessments, statements will be heard by intelligent, decision-making people. It is not serious to say that if tomorrow you do not do what I demand of you, we will press the 'red button,'" the Russian foreign minister said. "I am convinced that in such situations, decision makers have an idea of what we are talking about. Nobody wants a nuclear war."

When the Russians speak of “nuclear war”, they are being deadly serious.

Why can't our leaders seem to understand this?

Meanwhile, the war in the Middle East appears to have reached a critical turning point.

On Sunday, Hezbollah continued to pummel northern Israel with rockets. In fact, we are being told that some even landed near the city of Haifa...

Israel and Hezbollah continued to trade hundreds of strikes on Sunday as the sides appear to be spiraling toward an all-out war following months of escalating tensions.

The Iran-backed militant group launched more than 100 rockets across a wider and deeper area of northern Israel, with some landing near the city of Haifa. The barrage overnight set off air raid sirens across northern Israel, sending thousands of people scrambling into shelters.

Israel's military said the rockets were fired “toward civilian areas,” pointing to a possible escalation after previous barrages had mainly been aimed at military targets.

One of the areas that has been getting hit the hardest is the little town of Nazareth.

Needless to say, Nazareth is a town that has a tremendous amount of significance to Christians all over the globe...

“Another barrage of Hezbollah rockets at Nazareth. The hometown of Jesus, a town which is 70% Muslim & 30% Christian and almost entirely Arab,” noted American Evangelical leader Johnnie Moore, president of the Congress of Christian Leaders, on social media.

“For months Hezbollah has been targeting the Galilee, the geographic heart of Jesus' ministry.”

The IDF has been attempting to minimize the damage by taking out as many rocket launchers as it can.

In fact, it was being reported on Sunday that Israeli aircraft hit about “400 militant sites” over a 24 hour period...

The Israeli military said that it carried out a wave of strikes across southern Lebanon over the past 24 hours, hitting about 400 militant sites, including rocket launchers. Lt. Col. Nadav Shoshani, an Israeli military spokesman, said those strikes had thwarted an even larger attack.

It also appears that Israel has started to use bigger bombs than we have seen in the past...

Shockwave felt many many miles away..

Both sides just continue to escalate matters, and it is just a matter of time before an all-out war erupts.

When an all-out war erupts, Hezbollah will be able to count on assistance from allies all over the region.

Could this also include Turkey? This weekend, the president of Turkey once again had some very threatening words for Israel...

Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan believes that Israel acts as a terrorist organization, its target being not only the Gaza Strip but the whole region.

“I have been saying all along that Israel targets not only the Gaza Strip. The recent attacks on Lebanon have confirmed our suspicion that the Israeli leadership’s plan is to spread the war to the entire region. Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu and his gang have been staging all kinds of provocations to implement their radical Zionist ideology. The pressure on Israel must be intensified further to prevent the region from being dragged into an even greater disaster,” Erdogan told the media before flying to the United States for the UN General Assembly session.

He said he would address the UNGA on the first day to ask the participants to remember “the need for taking action against genocide in the Gaza Strip and Israel’s aggressive policies.”

The Biden administration seems to think that a major regional war could be coming too.

On Saturday, the U.S. State Department warned all Americans living in Lebanon that they should leave while they still can...

The US State Department on Saturday urged Americans in Lebanon to leave the country while commercial options remain available, as the conflict between Israel and Hezbollah flares.

“Due to the unpredictable nature of ongoing conflict between Hezbollah and Israel and recent explosions throughout Lebanon, including Beirut, the US Embassy urges US citizens to depart Lebanon while commercial options still remain available,” the State Department said in an updated advisory.

“At this time, commercial flights are available, but at reduced capacity. If the security situation worsens, commercial options to depart may become unavailable.” it added.

Personally, I think that this warning is not nearly strong enough.

Once all-out war erupts, you will not want to be anywhere in the entire region.

As I have repeatedly warned, my personal opinion is that this is going to be an “apocalyptic” war that far surpasses anything that we have ever witnessed in the Middle East before.

Events have pushed both sides to the brink of a precipice, and what is going to happen over the next few months will change our world forever.

Russia says it could "combine" with China if they faced a threat

By Dmitry Antonov

MOSCOW, Sept 11 (Reuters) - Russia said on Wednesday that its partnership with China was not aimed against third countries but the two powers could "combine potential" if faced with a threat from the United States.

"I would like to remind you that Moscow and Beijing will respond to 'double containment' by the United States with 'double counteraction'," Foreign Ministry spokeswoman Maria Zakharova said when asked about a possible deployment of U.S. missiles in Japan.

The Japan Times reported on Sept. 7 that the United States had expressed an interest in deploying a Typhon mid-range missile system to Japan for joint military exercises.

"It is clear that both Russia and China will react to the emergence of additional and very significant missile threats, and their reaction will be far from being political, which has also been repeatedly confirmed by the two countries," Zakharova told reporters at her weekly briefing.

She said Russia and China had a strategic partnership that was not aggressive in its intent.

"Our relations are not directed against third countries... and double counteraction does not contradict this. This is a defensive position, this is not an initiative to target other countries," Zakharova said in answer to a question from Reuters.

"But if an aggressive policy of attack is being implemented against us from one centre, why don't we combine our potential and give an appropriate rebuff?"

It brought heavy rains and strong winds, leading to widespread devastation.

Presidents Vladimir Putin and Xi Jinping signed a "no limits" partnership deal in 2022, less than three weeks before Putin sent his troops into Ukraine. In May this year they agreed to deepen what they called their "comprehensive partnership and strategic cooperation" for a new era.

The two countries have not declared a formal military alliance, although Putin last week described them as "allies in every sense of the word".

Russia and China have staged military exercises together, including naval drills that started on Tuesday. Putin, overseeing the launch of the manoeuvres, warned the United States against attempts to outgun Russia by building up its military power in the Asia-Pacific region.

It's A Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad Fake Presidential Race

Authored by Donald Jefferies

Don't burn your popcorn...

I've been an observer of national politics since I was eleven years old. I cried when they killed Robert F. Kennedy. I was a die hard Democrat. I thought they were the good guys. Then I became an independent, and have grown more radical as I age. I know the process is rigged, and yet I continue to follow it, like a heroin addict.

Donald Trump was recently the victim of yet another assassination attempt. Apparently. The same people who believe the first attempt, in Butler Pennsylvania two months ago, was staged, naturally believe this one was fake, too. And they both might very well have been. After all, everything they do is seemingly scripted. No improvisation allowed. But the response is what really grabs my attention. As I've noted, those on the Left who are skeptical of the Trump assassination attempts aren't skeptical about anything else. They believe in Russian collusion. They think "Climate Change" is a tremendous threat to us all. They accept the transgender lunacy. And despite the vast majority being White themselves, they are fully on board with the anti-White agenda. So they're certainly predisposed to accept things at face value.

The alleged would-be assassin is supposedly one Ryan Wesley Routh. Another three namer- who could have predicted that? As you can see from the photo above, when Routh was apprehended, his shirt was oddly pulled up, revealing his A-cup man boobs, and his pants were pulled down lewdly, in big hair, rock star fashion. Did he do this himself? I don't know, maybe that's the latest fashion trend for potential patsies? It certainly is an attention grabber. Or did law enforcement pull his shirt up, and his pants down? That takes us into more bizarre territory. Perhaps their resistance got weak, and they absolutely had to see if this fifty eight year old had six pack abs. It's a suppressed homosexuality thing, you wouldn't understand. However you look at it, I don't believe we've seen another arrest photo like it.

But Ryan Wesley Routh is far more than man boobs and almost exposed crotch. We are told that the FBI and Interpol were "warned" about him. We are told this, after the fact, about most of the accused perpetrators of high profile crimes. We understand how corrupt and incompetent the FBI has always been, so it makes sense that they would ignore "warnings" about any potentially dangerous individual. I suppose Interpol is no better. Maybe they can hire more people, with better lone nut detectors. The brave Secret Service detail was evidently denied the opportunity to stand down at Trump's own golf course in Palm Beach, Florida. I feel confident they would have been exemplary once again, in not doing their job, if the patsy wearing the makeshift tank top had been able to get close enough to fire at Trump.

Routh is also an author. Just like me, and many others who have never fired shots at any politician. Or pulled our shirts up and pants down so provocatively in public. Routh's self-published book Ukraine's Unwinnable War: The Fatal Flaw of Democracy, World Abandonment and the Global Citizen-Taiwan, Afghanistan, North Korea and the end of Humanity, is an impassioned plea for World War III. Wow- nobody ever tell me that the subtitles for my books are too wordy. He is documented as a fervent leftist, having formerly supported Bernie Sanders, and having contributed financially many times to ActBlue. He tried to recruit foreign soldiers to help Ukraine defeat Russia. You'd think that, with all this information, it would be obvious that Routh was motivated by the same kind of irrational hatred for Donald Trump that has infected millions of formerly rational Americans with TDS.

But instead of acknowledging this, and perhaps issuing one of their standard lectures to the insane "Woke" Left, the mainstream media, and high profile Democrats themselves, are telling Trump to "tone down" his rhetoric. If you just stop saying "hateful" things, no one will try to assassinate you! What is most remarkable about Routh is the fact that he was inexplicably interviewed by Newsweek in 2022. His only claim to fame was his self-published book, touting the official state controlled media line on Ukraine. People who write self-published books don't usually get to be interviewed by huge media outlets like that. I have legitimate publishers, and I couldn't get Newsweek to notice me, even if I walked into their headquarters with a "9/11 Wasn't an Inside Job" tee shirt pulled up past my nipples. So the FBI not only knew about Routh, but Newsweek thought he was worth an interview, two years ago?

Now I am fully aware that many are dubious about this attempt, just as they are about the incident in Pennsylvania. I am, too. Why would we believe anything that is reported, by a media that is simply regurgitating talking points from “authorities” that lie to us about everything? How did Routh know Trump was going to be at the golf course, the skeptics are asking. Good question. Initially, the New York Post went with a story that claimed two men had fired shots at each other, and it was all totally unrelated to Trump. Well, that sounds plausible. I used to golf regularly, very badly, back in the misty days of America 1.0. I guess I was lucky not to have encountered two men shooting at each other on any of the courses I played. Where else would you hold a gun battle, other than a golf course? Regardless, as in the Steve Scalise shooting, the victim’s motives are never political if he’s a leftist, only if he’s a right-wing extremist.

However real either or both Trump assassination attempts were, the response to them is even more telling. Trump has to be the only politician that survived an attempt on his life, and actually went down in the fake public opinion polls afterwards. You’d imagine that the second attempt would ensure his victory. But I think we can predict that he’ll plunge even further after the failed efforts of Ryan Wesley Routh. I’m sure the Republicuck leaders will leave no stone unturned in finding out the truth here. Sure, they haven’t managed to call a single one of the Secret Service agents who stood down completely in Butler, but these things take time. They’re still searching for photos of Thomas Matthew Crooks taken after he graduated from the eighth grade. That makes sense; few of us have our pictures taken after middle school. It’s all downhill from there.

And their task won’t be made easier by the fact that the Secret Service is unwilling to cooperate in any investigation. Well, to be fair, any real investigation would make the Secret Service look really bad. The Biden administration, Homeland Security, all of them, are urging the Secret Service not to comply with Congress. What is Congress going to do if they don’t? Remember Hunter Biden’s taunting press conference? Maybe if Peter Navarro was one of the Secret Service agents in question. And, in keeping with their appearance of upright honesty, the Secret Service is also rejecting Freedom of Information Act requests about the Butler incident. Nothing evokes innocence better than that. So we’ll never find anything out. If it was real, who was actually behind it? Or if it was staged, as millions believe, why it was staged, and by who? Was Trump in on it? Why stage a shooting, and then stop reporting on it?

Melania Trump, one of the least visible of modern political wives, recently put out a heartfelt video where she talked about the first assassination attempt, and supported the “conspiracy theorists” who feel there is more to it than a loner walking around for thirty minutes carrying a rifle, and then scaling the wall of a building, while witnesses tried in vain to get the attention of law enforcement. If only Crooks would have committed an illegal U-Turn; those cops would have apprehended him before he could U-Turn again. At any rate, Don Lemon, the gay White hater who is married to a White man, played Melania's emotional video and ridiculed it. Made fun of it like a sixth grade bully. A gay, racist bully. Lemon can freely mock Mrs. Trumpenstein, and millions of Americans believe the Giant Orange Man is orchestrating the whole thing. I think it is all orchestrated, but Trump isn't doing the orchestrating.

We used to have a saying, back in the smoke-filled 1970s, that bullets, not ballots, shouldn't effect the outcome of elections. JFK's death certainly effected the 1964 election, as did RFK's in 1968. Then there was the George Wallace nonfatal shooting, which ended his campaign in 1972. In 1980, while Reagan was elected, his nonfatal shooting a few months later certainly seems to have impacted the way he governed. But until this year, we hadn't seen any more bullets changing the outcome of our elections. Lots of character assassination, and false promotion of preferred establishment puppets, but no actual gunfire. As I keep saying, what makes the Trump assassination attempts so extraordinary is how quickly they are forgotten. Tossed down the memory hole. This would apply even if they were staged. They should be the big story of the 2024 presidential race. No investigation, move on to the next act.

The fact that Trump wasn't asked a single question about the alleged attempt on his life, during the ridiculous debate with Harris, should tell us all we need to know. They don't want any of these big events looked at honestly, whether they were fake or not. 9/11 or Sandy Hook- don't ask questions! Why didn't Trump's Secret Service do their jobs? Mere incompetence cannot explain that. A volunteer group of elementary school safety patrols would have responded better. So, if you believe it really happened or not, that is what should be investigated first. Like JFK's Secret Service detail in 1963, who failed to react at all to the sound of gunfire, Trumpenstein's Secret Service detail failed to notice someone walking around openly brandishing a rifle, and then scaling the side of a building. Even when witnesses alerted them to it. No one is acting like these events were real, even in much of the alt media and the Trump campaign itself.

And while Trump dodges real or fake bullets, Kamala Harris keeps cackling her way to a lead in the fake public opinion polls. Trump's running mate J.D. Vance continues to be depicted as "weird," despite never having ingested horse semen, or driven drunk while going nearly 100 mph. Both he and Trump have been blasted by the state controlled media for objecting to Haitian migrants eating cats and dogs. That's not the "hate" that PETA represents! Vance continues to be haunted by his "childless cat lady" comments. Never have childless women been so proud. They've gone beyond the programming and firmly committed themselves to not reproducing. Don't be fruitful or multiply! Trump hates dogs and cats because he says Haitians are eating them. That's racist! And he keeps claiming that he's been shot at. If they frame a Black three-namer patsy for one of these real or fake shootings, that will be racist, too.

While J.D. Vance's "weirdness" comes primarily from an anecdote invented by his political opponents, about "humping" some sofa pillows, Tim Walz and his wife seem to fit much better into the "weird" category. At a recent Wisconsin rally, Walz gesticulated wildly, in the manner of the immortal Howard Dean, and even lifted his leg at one point. Maybe he was thinking of all those dogs in Ohio who definitely aren't being eaten by Haitians. Gwen Walz is his perfect soul mate; her wild eyed, sometimes incomprehensible speech is the stuff most political trophy wives never master. She kept saying "bye-bye" for some reason. Gwen notably said, regarding the 2020 BLM riots, that she kept her windows open so she could keep smelling the burning tires. Well, who doesn't like the scent of a burning tire? Both Walz and his wife were Minnesota public school teachers, so you know where they're coming from.

A new rumor revolves around Donald Trump having an affair with 31 year old conservative personality Laura Loomer. Loomer has threatened to sue odious "comedian" Bill Maher for insinuating such a thing. Those with TDS accept this without reservations. As I've tried to point out to them, this kind of destroys their carefully crafted image of Trump, as a clown with a really, really small penis. Can't emphasize that enough, because it's so important to them. And he is 78 years old. Wouldn't this mean he's a stud, having an affair with someone young enough to be his granddaughter? I know what you're saying; Laura Loomer is a worthless apologist for Israel. She's really ugly; she ought to sue her plastic surgeon. She's actually a man, Larry Loomer. Whatever, as the young girls say. I hate to see anyone ridiculed for their looks, so this brings out my chivalry. And I can't stand Maher.

And there is the matter of the anonymous ABC whistleblower, who released an affidavit claiming that he had recordings proving that ABC agreed to "fact check" Donald Trump in advance, as well as not ask certain questions in the debate, as requested by the Harris campaign. Whether she really had an "audio earring" that was feeding her answers, Harris undeniably was given preferential treatment by the laughable moderators. One of them, Linsey Davis, was Harris's college sorority sister, after all. Girlfriends have to stick together. There have been reports that the ABC whistleblower went on to die in a car crash, reminding us of the precarious shelf life of whistleblowers. This has been debunked, by the state controlled "fact checkers." Since we don't know the identity of the whistleblower, how can we know if he's alive? Trust the Stupid Party in Congress to get to the bottom of it. They always do.

In 1976, I was as excited as a present day illegal immigrant to cast my first vote. I studied all the Democratic Party presidential candidates, and there were plenty of them.

Only Senator Fred Harris publicly supported a new investigation into the assassination of JFK, which was of course my primary political issue at that point. Jimmy Carter, the obscure peanut farmer from Georgia, was my least favorite candidate. I noticed how the media chose Carter to focus on, and incessantly promote him as the “front runner” before a single primary vote had been cast. Needless to say, they have used this tactic repeatedly over the years, to marginalize good people like Dennis Kucinich and my friend Cynthia McKinney. While Jimmy’s sister Ruth Carter Stapleton openly questioned the official JFK narrative, the Trilateral Commission’s favorite candidate remained silent on the issue.

So, this is what I’m relegated to now. Analyzing distasteful reactions to what may have been fake assassination attempts. Determining which of the corrupt, incompetent, and insane candidates are the worst in each category. As far back as the 1980s, I was involved in Third Party politics. We obviously didn’t make any inroads, as we don’t have a single viable Third Party today. I fell in love with lots of renegade candidates. Ross Perot. Pat Buchanan. Ralph Nader, Ron Paul. I even had a fling with Lyndon Larouche. Perot got 19 percent of the vote in 1992, and 8 percent in 1996. I don’t think anyone else I liked ever made it over 1 percent. My political candidates are kind of like my sports teams; they never win. So when I voted for Trump in 2016, he became my second winner, alongside Jimmy Carter, for whom I less than enthusiastically cast my first vote as a starry-eyed radical with an ACLU membership card.

As I was writing this, rumors abound that there has been yet another attempt- the third- on Trump’s life. Alex Jones and others are reporting that some attendees who sat behind the stage at a recent Trump rally in Arizona reported experiencing eye pain. Were they collateral damage from a chemical attack directed at Trump? Or were they peddling “wild conspiracy theories,” as one of the few news outlets to report the story called it? A senior Trump campaign advisor released a public statement saying they were “collecting information” about the incident. Can this be real? As real as the other two acknowledged attempts, doubted by millions? Is Trump now just going to be the continuous, designated victim of attempted assassination, yet always surviving? If he really were assassinated, would that be fake, too? Would millions cheer?

I can hear some of you saying; why another piece on this fake presidential race? It’s all rigged, the candidates are selected, not elected. And you are right. It is all scripted. A completely rigged process. I’ve known for a long time that my vote isn’t being honestly counted. But I trudged to the polls, especially when my kids were little, to set a good example of civic duty. I didn’t think they would understand, or should know, how rotten everything was at such tender ages. But I’m still doing it. I’ll probably vote again. I do it for the same reason I still play fantasy football, despite knowing how corrupt and fixed all sports are, and how they discriminate against Whites just like every other part of America 2.0. I’m addicted. If I was a different sort of person, I’d start virtue signaling. It’s not my fault I pay so much attention to your phony bread and circuses- I’m the victim here! You sucked me in a young age, just like the tobacco companies. I quit cigarettes in 1989. I can't seem to quit politics. Or sports.

I call it the Trumpenstein Project for a reason. I don't take anything he says seriously. But the side he purports to oppose is unquestionably, indisputably evil. And utterly mad. As always, there is no one to vote for. It is much like betting on the Super Bowl, while knowing that it's fixed. You still get a thrill out of "your" team winning. There will be no thrills in a Trump victory, should that be the way the script is written. But it will be must see TV, to watch all those deranged leftist "journalists" react. Maybe one or more of them will lose all control, unleashing a stream of ugly profanity, or perhaps they might assault each other. Rachel Maddow vs. Joy Reid. You might see an on air suicide. How could they go on with Orange Man Bad back in the White House? As I've noted, that may be the best any of us can expect from this tarnished, prostituted process. It certainly is the best that I can hope for.

Harris campaign office damaged by gunfire in Arizona

By Alex Tabet and Gabe Gutierrez

TEMPE, Ariz. — Police are investigating what appears to be gunfire damage overnight at a Democratic Party-coordinated campaign office for Vice President Kamala Harris.

The incident occurred just a few days before Harris is scheduled to visit Arizona as she campaigns for president.

“We can confirm that on 9/23/24, what appears to be damage from gunfire at ... a DNC Campaign Office, was discovered,” Tempe police said in a statement to NBC News on Tuesday.

Tempe police said that officers responded Monday after calls from workers, and that they observed what appeared to be gunshots through the front windows of the office which is shared by staff members for the Arizona Democratic Party, the Harris campaign and Senate and House campaigns to boost turnout for the party in November.

“No one was inside the office during the overnight hours, but this raises concerns about the safety of those who work in that building, as well as those nearby,” Public Information Officer, Sgt. Ryan Cook said in a statement Tuesday.

The apparent gunfire marks the second incident of criminal damage at that office in recent weeks, according to Tempe police, who said that just after midnight on Sept. 16 the office’s front windows were hit with what appeared to be a BB gun or pellet gun.

Police are investigating what appears to be gunfire damage overnight at a Democratic Party-coordinated campaign office for Vice President Kamala Harris. KPNX NBC affiliate KPNX of Phoenix previously reported the office had been damaged by gunfire. KPNX

Sean McEnerney, the coordinated campaign manager for the state Democratic Party, also confirmed the incident in a statement.

“Overnight, several shots were fired into our Tempe Democratic Party coordinated campaign office,” McEnerney said. No one was present or injured at the office, he confirmed.

NBC affiliate KPNX of Phoenix previously reported that the office had been damaged by gunfire and captured video from the crime scene that showed gunshots through the windows.

Arizona Democratic Party Chairwoman Yolanda Bejarano said in a statement that it was “extremely sad that the Arizona Democratic Party has become the target of violence – it’s not who we are as Arizonans or Americans.”

"We are working with law enforcement to ensure this threat is taken seriously and that our staff members are safe while they're at work," she added.

Harris is returning to the state Friday in her first trip there since her packed rally in Glendale on Aug. 9. At that rally, she tackled immigration head-on, outlining proposals to increase border security and create a pathway to citizenship for undocumented immigrants. On this trip, Harris is considering making a stop at the border, according to two people familiar with her schedule. Her campaign declined to comment on that possibility.

The coordinated campaign office in Tempe is one of 18 field offices for the Harris campaign in Arizona, according to Patty Socarras, the state Democratic Party's communications director.

Tempe, a college town home to Arizona State University, will be critical if Democrats hope to win the state in November. Student enrollment at ASU, a group that could prove a key constituency in a state that Joe Biden won by only about 10,000 votes in 2020, was about 57,000 last year.

On Aug. 28, the Harris campaign held a campaign event in Tempe featuring Rep. Maxwell Frost, D-Fla. Frost, 27, rose to political prominence by focusing on gun control issues, and he made gun violence a cornerstone of his speech to ASU students as he stumped on behalf of the Harris campaign this summer.

"We still have to work at ending gun violence," said Frost, who recounted the Parkland school shooting in Florida back in 2017. "We can work at creating a community where people don't feel the need to use a gun to solve their problems in the first place."

Less Than 50 Days Until Life In America Changes Forever, And Our Nation Is Primed For Massive Civil Unrest

MICHAEL SNYDER

Years of extremely inflammatory rhetoric from the mainstream media and from many of our leaders have brought us to the brink of a societal nightmare. The numbers that I am about to share with you are horrifying, but it is so important for us to understand what is ahead of us. In an article that I posted yesterday, I discussed the recent attempt on Trump's life and I stated that "there are some that truly wish that he had been killed". Unfortunately, that was a tremendous understatement. According to a survey that was conducted after the most recent attempt on Trump's life, 17 percent of all Americans think that America would "be better off" if Trump had been killed...

Veteran pollster Scott Rasmussen's national survey of 1,000 registered voters, conducted by RMG Research for the Napolitan News Service, asked Americans about Sunday's second assassination attempt on Trump. It included this pointed question:

While it is always difficult to wish ill of another human being, would America be better off if Donald Trump had been killed last weekend?

17% Yes

69% No

14% Not sure

There are approximately 333 million people living in the United States today.

17 percent of 333 million is 56.6 million.

So there are approximately 56.6 million Americans that wish that Trump had been killed last weekend.

Just think about that number for a moment.

That is nuts!

Of course most of the people that wish that Trump had been killed are Democrats.

According to the same survey, a whopping 28 percent of all Democrats believe that America would “be better off” if Trump had been killed, and another 24 percent are not sure...

That figure includes 28% of Democrats who say that America would have been better off if Trump had been assassinated. Another 24% of Democrats were not sure. Fewer than half (48%) of Democrats could bring themselves to say that America would not be better off if the opposing party's candidate for president had been assassinated.

Scott Rasmussen, president of RMG Research, said “It is hard to imagine a greater threat to democracy than expressing a desire to have your political opponent murdered.”

This just shows how far gone this nation is.

If he wins the election, how is Trump supposed to govern this country when more than 50 million people want him dead?

Trump has already survived two assassination attempts, and it will literally be a miracle if he actually makes it to the election.

On Wednesday, there were reports that an “explosive device” had been found in a vehicle close to a venue where Trump would soon be holding a rally...

Police have reportedly discovered an “explosive device” in a car near President Trump's rally venue in Uniondale, New York tonight.

According to Nassau County Police Department sources. "During K9, doing their checks, they found an explosive device in one of the vehicles and that driver ended up running into the woods." Another source from the department confirmed this, investigative reporter James Lalino told The Gateway Pundit.

News of this "explosive device" quickly spread all over the Internet, but now authorities are claiming that it was just a false alarm...

A spokesperson for the Nassau County Police Department confirmed to DailyMail.com that 'there was a suspicious occurrence' on Wednesday ahead of Trump's speech where thousands of MAGA fans are gathering.

But there is 'no validity' to a report that there was an 'explosive device found.'

'Reports of explosives being found at the site are unfounded,' said Nassau County Commissioner of Police Patrick Ryder.

He went on to blame a suspect with a 'self-trained bomb-detecting dog' for sounding the alarm about explosives near the rally site.

Hopefully it really was just a false alarm.

At a recent Trump rally in Arizona, multiple people that were sitting on the stage behind Trump ended up with serious eye injuries...

It's a mystery at a Donald Trump rally that left multiple people with eye injuries and few answers.

The News 4 Tucson Investigators spoke exclusively with six people who were seated on stage behind the former president during his rally in Tucson last week. Three of them agreed to on camera interviews.

One of the injured Trump supporters is a woman named Mayra Rodriguez.

It is being reported that on the Friday morning after the rally, "she was nearly blind"...

“The emergency room staff, from the triage nurse to the PA [Physicians Assistant] asked are you sure you didn’t get sprayed with something your symptoms look like you got sprayed with something,” she said.

The N4T Investigators spoke with her on Friday the morning after the event, she was nearly blind.

“I can’t see anything when I try to open my eyes. I see a bright light. It hurts, it hurts a lot to open my eyes. I have this cold cloth I put on and take off constantly. It’s horrible.” she explained.

How did this happen?

Obviously whatever occurred affected multiple people on that stage.

Was something sprayed toward the stage?

Was this some sort of an attack on Trump?

Needless to say, Trump has not reported any problems with his eyes.

Personally, I don’t know what to think.

Hopefully we will get more answers in the days ahead.

I think that it would be wise for Trump to play it safe and stop holding rallies, but he will never do that.

Trump knows that if he loses this election, he will be going to prison for the rest of his life.

So I think that he is willing to put everything on the line in an all-out attempt to win this election.

And right now most polls show that it is a very tight race.

Earlier today, I came across a new Gallup poll that shows that Donald Trump actually has a higher favorability rating than Kamala Harris does...

Nearly identical percentages of U.S. adults rate Donald Trump (46%) and Kamala Harris (44%) favorably in Gallup's latest Sept. 3-15 poll, during which the candidates debated for the first time. Both candidates, however, have higher unfavorable than favorable ratings. Trump's unfavorable rating is seven percentage points higher than his favorable score, and Harris' is 10 points higher.

In less than 50 days, the wait will be over.

If Trump wins the election, tens of millions of Democrats that absolutely hate him will throw an absolutely massive temper tantrum.

We are talking about civil unrest in the streets on a scale that would be absolutely frightening.

Of course there will also be a tremendous amount of turmoil if Kamala Harris ends up winning.

I don't see any way that this ends well, and that means that life in America is about to change forever.

The Stage Is Being Set For The Greatest Period Of Chaos In U.S. History

MICHAEL SNYDER

If chaos is what they intended, everything is coming together beautifully. Major wars threaten to throw the entire planet into a state of turmoil, criminals are running wild in our streets, and in a little over a month the outcome of the presidential election is likely to cause an unprecedented explosion of anger. If all of this wasn't bad enough, our politicians have been allowing millions of desperate people to come pouring over our wide open borders. Some of these "new arrivals" belong to international criminal gangs, and members of these gangs are being arrested for violent acts, theft, drug dealing and sex trafficking all over America. Other "new arrivals" belong to terror groups in the Middle East, and you would think that this would be a major national security concern. Russians have also been crossing the border illegally, as have very large numbers of military-age Chinese men. The stage is being set for the greatest period of chaos in U.S. history, and this should deeply alarm all of us.

Since Joe Biden has been in the White House, we have witnessed a spike in migration that is absolutely unprecedented in our history.

Millions of people have been allowed in, and once they get into this country they can go wherever they want.

Most of them have come in through the southern border, but what most people don't realize is that migration over the northern border is also wildly out of control...

There has been growing attention from northern-state lawmakers in recent years over increased attempted illegal border crossings as migration from Latin America grows due to economic and political conditions.

In 2023, U.S. Customs and Border Protection encountered almost 190,000 individuals attempting to cross from Canada to the United States. That's almost seven times more than in 2021.

Unfortunately, the number of people coming in through the northern border has just continued to rise in 2024...

This year, the number of illegal crossings along the northern border is hitting record levels, and northern New York, with its proximity to Montreal and Toronto, is the epicenter of the influx. In August alone, the Border Patrol reported 19,000 migrant encounters along the border with Canada, with nearly half entering through New York.

It is so easy to come across the northern border.

The U.S. border with Canada is 5,525 miles long, and there aren't many border agents covering it.

Fox News recently interviewed a property owner in northern New York that says that migrants are constantly entering this country through his land...

Chris Oliver's property in Fort Covington, New York has become an unintended gateway for a stream of illegal immigrants crossing the Canadian border into the United States, leaving him dismayed and wondering if the problem will ever be resolved.

He told "Fox & Friends First" he "absolutely" blames "border czar" Kamala Harris and President Biden for the issue.

"You have no control over it. You don't know who these people are. Not everybody is a good person." Oliver said on Wednesday.

He is right.

We need to know who these people are, because not everyone is coming here with good intentions.

In fact, during that same interview Oliver mentioned a recent case where a man was arrested that was planning “an ISIS-style attack in New York City”...

“They had a guy up in Ormstown not too far away from us, get arrested. He was planning an ISIS-style attack in New York City. That was just recently. That same night, I still had people come across my cameras. That should be stopped.”

For those that are crossing the northern border, New York City is the number one destination.

According to NPR, transporting “new arrivals” from India to New York City has actually become a very lucrative business...

A group of immigrants from India pile out of a taxi minivan beside the Clinton County, New York, government building in this small upstate city half an hour from the Canadian border.

They are quickly swarmed by a half a dozen fellow Indian immigrants who've waited hours for this business opportunity.

This fleet of jitney taxis offering migrants rides south to New York City is one clear example of the informal economy that's sprung up following a significant increase in unauthorized crossings across the usually sleepy northern border over the last year and a half.

Needless to say, some people are coming to the United States because they want a better life.

But in many other cases, people are crossing the border for very nefarious reasons.

According to the New York Post, children that are as young as 8 years old “are being drugged and smuggled into the US by traffickers”...

Border Patrol agents are warning that kids as young as 8 are being drugged and smuggled into the US by traffickers posing as their parents or family members — and nobody knows how common the horrifying practice is.

Authorities have rescued children caught up in two different instances of such smuggling in recent weeks — including one instance in which the alleged traffickers had birth certificates for multiple kids to whom they weren't related, according to the Border Patrol.

Border Patrol sources have told The Post they've observed increasing numbers of smugglers posing as family units in order to "recycle" children.

Stopping the exploitation of children should be a good enough reason all by itself to secure our borders.

But our politicians refuse to do it.

Others are crossing our borders because they intend to commit acts of violence. Recently, a very alarming discovery of weapons was made very close to the southern border...

Republicans are outraged at the Biden-Harris administration for ignoring an escalating security crisis at the southern border after rocket-propelled grenades and explosives were found near Arizona.

A bombshell report indicated that at least 4 rocket-propelled grenades (RPGs) and 8 improvised explosive devices (IEDs) were discovered in Mexico close to the U.S.-Mexico border.

Huge amounts of ammunition were also found in the 'scout site' that was around 700 feet from the border wall in Border Patrol's Tucson Sector, according to an internal memo first reported by NewsNation.

At this stage, we don't know exactly who those weapons belonged to or what they intended to do with them.

But it is being reported that Iran "is trying to assassinate former President Donald Trump"...

Iran has made it "clear" that it is trying to assassinate former President Donald Trump, as well as members of his administration — and the current Biden administration – as payback for the killing of an Iranian general and other hardline policies, U.S. officials and lawmakers said Wednesday.

The comments came after Trump's dramatic disclosure Tuesday night that he had been briefed earlier in the day by the Office of the Director of National Intelligence about Tehran's "real and specific threats" against him.

As I shared with my core supporters recently, U.S. Representative Matt Gaetz has admitted that a top official with the Department of Homeland Security has told him that there are at least five assassination teams inside this country right now that are targeting Trump.

It really will be a miracle if Trump makes it to the election.

If Trump ultimately ends up winning, the left will go completely nuts and the millions upon millions of "new arrivals" that the left has brought into our major cities will go completely nuts.

It certainly won't take much to unleash an unprecedented tsunami of civil unrest, and perhaps that was the plan all along.

It's Chaos As Vast Hordes Of Criminals Literally Rule The Streets In Major Cities All Over America

MICHAEL SNYDER

Did you know that gangbangers in Chicago are extremely upset because a migrant gang from South America is starting to take over territory that once belonged to them? As you will see later in this article, law enforcement authorities in Chicago have completely lost control of the Windy City, and a major gang war could erupt at any time. But of course it isn't just Chicago that has descended into a state of complete and utter chaos. In Los Angeles, a horde of approximately 50 young criminals ruthlessly looted a 7-Eleven on Friday evening...

A group of about 50 juveniles on bikes ransacked a 7-Eleven in Pico-Robertson on Friday evening, the latest in a string of recent robberies targeting the convenience chain, authorities said.

The group of juveniles, estimated to be between ages 12 and 15, entered the store at 8500 W. Olympic Blvd. around 7:25 p.m. and stole many items, according to a Los Angeles Police Department spokesperson. Most of the juveniles had fled the scene by the time officers arrived, he said.

The reason why this incident barely even made a blip in the news cycle is because this sort of thing now happens in Los Angeles on a regular basis...

The same store was targeted — also reportedly by a group of around 50 teens on bikes — on Aug. 9, according to Fox 11 Los Angeles.

A week later, a group of young men on bikes robbed two convenience stores, reported to be 7-Elevens, in Hollywood. And on Aug. 24, a similar ransacking unfolded at a 7-Eleven in San Pedro.

In the middle of the country, the streets of Indianapolis are constantly under siege.

In fact, it is being reported that police in the city recently had to “break up five different street takeovers in 48 hours”...

Police said they were met with violent crowds when they tried to break up five different street takeovers in 48 hours in Indianapolis.

Indianapolis was once such a quiet city.

But now everything has changed.

When Indianapolis police go out to break up these “street takeovers”, they are often viciously attacked...

IMPD says officers and Indiana State Police troopers were attacked and their cars were damaged while responding to several street racing and spinning events in Indianapolis over the weekend.

The first incident was reported around 2:30 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 14 near East Washington and Pine streets, just east of downtown Indianapolis. Officers conducting a traffic stop saw 100-200 cars “engaged in reckless driving,” including spinning, in a parking lot, the department said in a statement.

Chaos is even reigning in major cities in the Bible Belt.

This weekend, there was a horrifying mass shooting in Birmingham, Alabama that made headlines all over the nation...

At least four people were killed and dozens more were injured when gunfire broke out in Birmingham, Alabama. Investigators believe there were multiple shooters.

“We have dozens of gunshot victims from this area,” police spokesman Truman Fitzgerald told the Birmingham News. “I’m told at least four of those gunshot victims are life-threatening.”

The shooting happened in the city’s popular Five Points South entertainment district. At least 17 of the gunshot victims were seriously injured.

Needless to say, there has been chaos in our streets for a long time, but now things are going to an entirely new level.

Many are blaming the surge in migration that we have been witnessing while Joe Biden has been in the White House.

In Springfield, Ohio crime rates have absolutely skyrocketed during the past three years...

Reports of shoplifting and vehicle theft increased considerably in Springfield, Ohio, following the arrival of thousands of Haitian refugees, according to data obtained by the Daily Caller News Foundation through a records request.

The town, which had a population of 58,622 in 2020, has taken in between 12,000 and 20,000 Haitian refugees over the past three years, marking a population increase of between 20.4% and 34.1%. From 2021 to 2023, Springfield also saw a 51.5% jump in motor vehicle theft reports and a 112.8% spike in reports of shoplifting, data provided by the Springfield Police Division shows.

In Chicago, migration has been fueling the growth of criminal gangs, and gang members now outnumber the police by more than ten to one.

With numbers like that, there is no way that the police can maintain any sort of control.

A migrant gang from Venezuela known as Tren de Aragua is now steadily taking over territory that once belonged to local gangs, and members of those local gangs are furious because the migrants are getting far more government handouts than they are...

"There's been a lot going on with (the migrant gangs) that nobody's even hearing about," Zacc Massie, 27, a street leader who first went to prison in 2015 and just recently got out.

"They be moving in our own territory and robbing people but they don't get arrested like we do. I actually talked to one on the translator app. He told me all the things he got going on; how they helped him get a car, an apartment, (EBT) card, all this stuff. They giving them thousands, we get maybe $400 a month. And they don't even have Social Security numbers!"

It is even being reported that teachers in Chicago elementary schools are being told to “give their migrant students a 70 percent in every subject and pass them on to the next grade” even if they don’t speak any English...

The teachers we spoke with work in CPS elementary schools and say they spoke no Spanish, while their migrant students spoke no English, making communication virtually impossible. They also added that because their schools were located in predominantly Black neighborhoods, they offered no English as a Second Language (ESL) support. Despite this, they say they were instructed by school administrators to give their migrant students a 70 percent in every subject and pass them on to the next grade.

Teachers say this was the case even if their migrant students displayed severe academic deficiencies.

The locals that have been suffering in deeply impoverished sections of Chicago for many years understand very clearly what is going on, and they are deeply frustrated.

Tensions in the city have never been higher, and one ex-gang member that has gone straight told the New York Post that it is just a matter of time before a gang war begins...

“When the black gangs here get fed up with the illegalities and criminal activities of these migrants or non-citizens, the city of Chicago is going to go up in flames and there will be nothing the National Guard or the government can do about it when the bloodshed hits the streets. It’ll be blacks against migrants.”

For a long time, we were warned that there would be chaos in the streets of America, and now it is here.

Law enforcement has already lost control of the streets in cities all over the country, and the violence, theft, drug dealing and sex trafficking only get worse with each passing day.

Meanwhile, millions of additional migrants come pouring into this nation illegally every single year.

Our politicians have created ideal conditions for widespread civil unrest, and once it fully erupts nobody is going to be able to control it.

The UN Just Adopted The “Pact For The Future” Which Lays The Foundation For A New “Global Order”

MICHAEL SNYDER

While everyone was distracted, the global elite got exactly what they wanted. The UN adopted the “Pact for the Future” on September 22nd, and the mainstream media in the western world almost entirely ignored what was happening. Instead, the headlines urged us to just keep focusing on Kamala Harris and Donald Trump. Sadly, the vast majority of the population has never ever heard about the “Pact for the Future”, and so there was very little public debate about whether or not we should be adopting a document which lays the foundation for a new “global order”. The text of the “Pact for the Future” is available online, but hardly anyone will ever read it and many of the most important provisions are buried toward the end of the 56 page document. Of course everyone should take the time to actually read this document, because our leaders just committed us to an extremely insidious global agenda that literally covers just about every conceivable area of human activity.

September 22nd, 2024 is a day that will go down in infamy.

Once the “Pact for the Future” was formally adopted, the following was posted on the official UN website...

World leaders today adopted a Pact for the Future that includes a Global Digital Compact and a Declaration on Future Generations. This Pact is the culmination of an inclusive, years-long process to adapt international cooperation to the realities of today and the challenges of tomorrow. The most wide-ranging international agreement in many years, covering entirely new areas as well as issues on which agreement has not been possible in decades, the Pact aims above all to ensure that international institutions can deliver in the face of a world that has changed dramatically since they were created. As the Secretary-General has said, “we cannot create a future fit for our grandchildren with a system built by our grandparents.”

You would think that the “most wide-ranging international agreement in many years” would make headlines all over the planet.

But that didn’t happen.

The UN press release also boldly declares that the “Pact for the Future” will “lay the foundations” for a new “global order”...

“The Pact for the Future, the Global Digital Compact, and the Declaration on Future Generations open the door to new opportunities and untapped possibilities,” said the Secretary-General during his remarks at the opening of the Summit of the Future. The President of the General Assembly noted that the Pact would “lay the foundations for a sustainable, just, and peaceful global order – for all peoples and nations.”

The Pact covers a broad range of issues including peace and security, sustainable development, climate change, digital cooperation, human rights, gender, youth and future generations, and the transformation of global governance.

I don’t want to live in a new “global order” that includes “all peoples and all nations”.

I am sure that most of you feel the exact same way.

Another page on the official UN website tells us that “UN 2.0” is all about creating a “modern UN family”...

Halfway through the 2030 Agenda, the world is not on track to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals. It is not too late to change course, if we all rethink, refocus, and recharge. “UN 2.0” encapsulates the Secretary-General’s vision of a modern UN family, rejuvenated by a forward-thinking culture and empowered by cutting-edge skills for the twenty-first century -- to turbocharge our support to people and planet.

We will strive towards this vision with a powerful fusion of innovation, data, digital, foresight and behavioural science skills and culture – a dynamic combination that we call the “Quintet of Change”. It is about evolution towards more agile, diverse, responsive, and impactful UN organizations.

That sounds so cozy, doesn't it?

Who wouldn't want to be a part of a “family”, right?

But the truth is that the agenda that they intend to impose on all of us will not be pleasant at all.

Over the years, much has been written about how insidious the UN's “Sustainable Development Goals” are.

Well, the UN is openly admitting that the “Pact for the Future” was specifically designed “to turbo-charge implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals”...

- The entire Pact is designed to turbo-charge implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals.
- The most detailed agreement ever at the United Nations on the need for reform of the international financial architecture so that it better represents and serves developing countries, including:
  - Giving developing countries a greater say in how decisions are taken at international financial institutions;
  - Mobilizing more financing from multilateral development banks to help developing countries meet their development needs;
  - Reviewing the sovereign debt architecture to ensure that developing countries can borrow sustainably to invest in their future, with the IMF, UN, G20 and other key players working together;
  - Strengthening the global financial safety net to protect the poorest in the event of financial and economic shocks, through concrete actions by the IMF and Member States;

- and accelerating measures to address the challenge of climate change, including through delivering more finance to help countries adapt to climate change and invest in renewable energy.
- Improving how we measure human progress, going beyond GDP to capturing human and planetary wellbeing and sustainability.
- A commitment to consider ways to introduce a global minimum level of taxation on high-net-worth individuals.
- On climate change, confirmation of the need to keep global temperature rise to 1.5 °C above pre-industrial levels and to transition away from fossil fuels in energy systems to achieve net zero emissions by 2050.

In one way or another, all forms of human activity contribute to “climate change”.

And so they intend to strictly regulate all forms of human activity in order to meet their twisted goals.

The “Pact for the Future” also recognizes a “central role” for the UN and a “coordinated and multidimensional international response” whenever future “global shocks” arise...

We recognize the need for a more coherent, cooperative, coordinated and multidimensional international response to complex global shocks and the central role of the United Nations in this regard. Complex global shocks are events that have severely disruptive and adverse consequences for a significant proportion of countries and the global population, and that lead to impacts across multiple sectors, requiring a multidimensional and whole-of-government, whole-of-society response.

The next time that there is a major global crisis, do you want the UN running the show and telling everyone what to do?

I tried to warn everyone about this.

I have written extensively about the “Pact for the Future”, but in the end only a very small sliver of the population got fired up about it.

Now the global elite have achieved their goal, and the opposition that they encountered was barely perceptible.

“Sustainable.” “Sustainability.” A couple of the popular new buzz words Leftists love to use as they continue to shove their “Green New Deal” down the throats of hard-working Americans, struggling harder than ever to hold on to their sanity, pay their bills, keep a roof over their heads and food on the table and shoulder an ever-increasing crushing burden of taxes.

I’m sick to death of hearing the word, because nothing the government does is “sustainable.” And our so-called “representatives” in Congress exempt themselves from every insane new rule they mandate for the rest of us. In a recent TV ad from Amazon.com, they used the word “sustainable” or “sustainability” eight times in thirty seconds. Give me a break. As with everything the Communists running our government come up with, every idea or program ends up being the exact opposite of what they name it. Consider: “The Affordable Care Act,” or “The Inflation Reduction Act.”

Recently, the small town of Springfield, Ohio has been in the news because it’s been over-run and overwhelmed with illegals being resettled there from Haiti. This town had a population of about 40,000 people in 2020. Now it has 60,000. One out of three there are now from Haiti. As you can imagine, it’s not working out very well.

Please understand that Springfield, Ohio is “Everytown, USA.” The spotlight might be on Springfield right now, but this same scenario is playing out in cities and small towns nationwide. Indeed, it’s worldwide and it’s by design.

We’re watching a deliberate tearing-down of the nations. As national borders are erased, so are the nations themselves, and the kings of the earth and the rulers, with their mighty plans, are working to blend all the nations and peoples of the earth into one. The goal is a “New World Order,” which really isn’t new at all, but rather, as old as the serpent in the Garden. Their goal is a “One World Government,” controlled by a select few demonic “elites.”

But for this to happen, there can be no national sovereignty. There cannot be individual nations, as God intended. This is why we’re seeing “mass migration” all over the world now. It’s been going on for many years, but never like what we’re seeing today. Today, millions of people are being relocated to nations they know nothing about and have no understanding of. The result is world-wide chaos and turmoil.

Formerly Christian nations are especially being targeted for invasion by so-called "migrants" from third-world countries. And as these migrants come, they're bringing with them their native customs and their pagan, false gods. Here in the US, just in the past four years, our government has welcomed and resettled more foreign invaders than the combined total population of 15 American states.

Islam has been invading our nation for decades now. We're talking about a system that requires everyone not following it to be killed...Christians and Jews are literally hunted. We have 300,000 Syrian Muslims in Detroit, Michigan — more than 90% of them are still on welfare, even though they've been in this country for over ten years. In Minnesota and Western Wisconsin, we have a quarter-million Muslims from Somalia. And wherever Muslims target their "migration jihad," — from Bloomington, Minnesota to Detroit, Michigan, to England, France, Germany or Switzerland — neighborhoods are destroyed, and lawlessness abounds. Residents fear for their lives as violent attacks, rapes and murders rise and "no go zones" become commonplace, where even the police will not enter.

Most Americans who hear me describe this situation will immediately call me "Islamophobic." But the topic of Islamic terrorism in America is old news. It's been going on for so long now, if you're not aware of this reality, you haven't paid attention. Of course, the mainstream media always covers for Islamic terrorists, just as they're doing their best now to hide what's happening with the mass invasion of our nation by illegals from all over the world. And because I'm tackling the subject matter I am today, I'll most certainly be labeled a "racist." In America today, "racist" is the least you'll be called if you dare express any amount of common sense.

What's more, if you believe in "Christian Nationalism," in other words, a sovereign nation (The United States), where the one true God of Creation is Lord, you're automatically considered a "Nazi." How did we end up at a point in this nation that if you love your country and you love God, then of course, you must be a "Nazi?"

It doesn't take a brain surgeon to figure out that along with the destruction of the natural family, the indoctrination from the LGBTQP+ and the "transgender" agenda, our public schools are training as many children as possible to hate America, hate white people, hate men, the idea of national sovereignty, and the teachings of Christianity. The plan is for the Globalist "New World Order" to first destroy all that we and our forefathers have built, and then to "build back better" in Satan's own image, "unburdened by what has been," as they say.

It's impossible to get an accurate number of the people who've been deliberately resettled into this country illegally. It's doubtful if even the criminal government leaders themselves know how many millions it is. But understand, the invaders are not "migrating" here to become Americans. They're here to conquer us. And so, we read again from Deuteronomy 28, "The alien who is among you shall rise higher and higher above you, and you shall sink down lower and lower."

My grandfather came here at the turn of the century, an immigrant from Ireland. He came legally and received nothing for free. In fact, he came as an indentured servant, so he worked for several years before and after his arrival to pay for his travel to get here as well as his room and board. Then, he became an American, and he did that at a time in this nation when the Irish were treated like animals. He also built his own business, worshiped and honored the Lord God, got married, raised a family and served his community in so many ways. My Dad was born in 1923 and so he was six years old when the Great Depression hit. My Irish immigrant grandfather lived through harder times than I can imagine, and the government gave him nothing for free.

As you know, it's not like that anymore. Now, in addition to wide-open borders on our north and south, our government is also flying illegals directly into the interior of our nation on "secret" charter jets, though they're not really a secret anymore... so blatant is the lawlessness of our rulers. These so-called "migrants" are not here to escape persecution and tyranny in their homelands. They're not "refugees." They're invaders. In the past year alone, at least 200,000 from China, hundreds of thousands from middle eastern Islamic countries, millions from Mexico, Central and South America. Many violent criminals, just recently released from prison or insane asylums. Welcome to America, the land of the free stuff, with no laws — at least none that apply to you.

So, let's talk about Springfield, Ohio — a microcosm of our new "multicultural" nation. The mainstream media and city officials have been quick to dismiss claims that Haitian migrants have been killing and eating local wildlife and pets. But since we know we can no longer trust the mainstream media, citizen reporters have recently gone to Springfield, to interview the residents themselves, to get the truth. Interestingly, as these citizen reporters began arriving in town, there were 34 bomb threats at local schools, and other municipal facilities. This resulted in a virtual "shut down" of the city... conveniently timed, so that very few Springfield residents were out and available to talk to those citizen reporters.

Those that did talk told the world what's happening. Yes, ducks and geese have disappeared from area parks and 911 calls from citizens reporting Haitians killing wildlife have been verified. Yes, decapitated pigs were found in Springfield, the blood having been drained from the carcasses. So far, the stories of the Haitians eating dogs and cats have not been verified, but in case you don't know, dogs and cats are delicacies to Haitians, so these stories may very well be true.

It's not that they don't have money to buy food or that they're not freely supplied with plenty to eat. It's that they prefer dog and cat meat. It's their "culture." Additionally, Haiti is steeped in voodoo and Satanism, and animal sacrifices are commonplace there. So, why wouldn't they bring their Haitian culture with them?

I remember in 1975 when the "Boat People" were brought here from Vietnam, Cambodia and Laos. With the Vietnam war having just ended in April of that year, these people were in grave danger from the Viet Cong in North Vietnam. Huge numbers were resettled in my hometown and in other towns in Wisconsin. People didn't like it, but these Asian refugees were just that — refugees, in real danger and in real need of help.

It took some time, but they did eventually assimilate into American culture. But it was not an easy transition. I remember even in my small town, ducks and geese were killed and eaten at the local park, and dogs and cats were taken and eaten by the refugees too. It's just the life they were used to. Over time, they learned we don't do that here. But I can tell you, that absolutely did happen back in the 1970s in small town Wisconsin, so it's not unthinkable that the same could be happening today in Ohio.

But the bigger story is that in Springfield, and in cities and towns all across this nation, Americans are purposely being replaced with foreigners. Shortly before their arrival, people were evicted from their apartments... the tenants were told the apartments were going to be remodeled and then they could return. Meanwhile, the town also had many houses that were unfit to live in, but those were quickly bought up by investors, repaired and turned into rental units. Now, housing is no longer affordable, because those apartments are now occupied by Haitians, and landlords receive triple the previous rent from the government, paying to house the Haitians. Many locals are now homeless, but it gets worse.

As taxpayers, we take very good care of the Haitian "migrants." One store clerk reported the Haitians receive absurd amounts of welfare money on their EBT cards. In one interview, she recalled how one person at her store purchased $13,000 worth of groceries at one time using their welfare card, and they still had a $29,000 cash balance remaining on the card.

This may explain how so many Haitian "migrants" are able to buy new cars — and houses — in Springfield. Another resident told how they're buying homes for cash; and how a migrant living just down the street from him owns a brand new, $110,000 Lexus SUV — but does not have a job.

And there's been a staggering rise in traffic accidents. Somehow, the Haitians receive drivers' licenses without having to take any tests. One local resident calculated there's been an 800% rise in traffic accidents since the Haitians moved in. Another resident said you see a lot of brand-new cars on the road, but they're all smashed up, because Haitians are buying brand new cars with cash, but don't know how to operate them. Insurance rates have soared for Springfield locals, but the Haitians don't buy insurance.

You should also be concerned with these drivers' licenses being so liberally handed out because of Ohio's "Motor Voter" law. That's actually the law in all but six states. When you get your drivers' license, you're automatically registered to vote in American elections, and the US Postal Service is then also required to send you election materials.

Recently, the fact-check website "Just Facts" confirmed to the Washington Stand that "the most comprehensive, transparent, and rigorous study on this matter found that about 2 million to 5 million noncitizens are illegally registered to vote" in the upcoming November elections. Are you concerned yet?

Then there are the jobs... There are some new factories in Springfield, but factory owners claim Americans don't want to work and won't take those jobs. But the citizens have stated that these well-paying government-subsidized factory jobs are never offered or advertised to local residents — the factory work force is nearly 100% Haitian, and jobs are filled through just one job placement agency, "First Diversity Staffing," which, interestingly, also owns many of the newly renovated housing units in town.

There seems to be a lot of slush money and a lot of hush money floating around in Springfield, Ohio — and all throughout our country. Many are getting rich off the invasion of our beloved nation, but millions more are losing everything, including our American way of life. This is absolutely unsustainable. And it's meant to be.

I hope everyone is paying attention to the way the replacement is unfolding..
The citizens of Dearborn Mi are being replaced with Syrians,
Colorado with Venezuelans,
Ohio with Haitians, Minnesotawith Somalians...
It'shappening right before our eyes and by the time the other half of the country wakes up it will be too late.

Several conservative entities expressed outrage on Friday after news broke that Amber Rose, the model and TV personality and ex-girlfriend of Kanye West, would be speaking at the Republican National Convention (RNC).

Critics called out the GOP for giving such prominence to Rose, a rapper and model who also wrote "How to Be a Bad B---h," with one critic sharing a video of her discussing Satanism.

"George W. Bush, Mitt Romney, Paul Ryan, Liz Cheney, Nikki Haley, and Ron DeSantis weren't invited to speak at the Republican National Convention in Milwaukee next week. But no worries. Rapper and model Amber Rose will give a speech," read a post on X from the account "Republicans Against Trump."

"Wait until Trump finds out about this tweet," they added, citing Rose's adamant opposition to Trump in 2016.

"Man, f--- the fact he's old, and f--- the fact that he was on TV," Rose wrote at the time, calling the now-GOP nominee a "sexual predator."

More recently, however, Rose has posted photos to social media of herself in a bikini wearing a "MAGA" hat, endorsed the presumptive GOP nominee in May and shared another photo of herself with the former president and former first lady Melania Trump.

"Is Donald Trump not for women's rights issues? — He's trying to Make America Great Again — that's for women too," Rose told a TMZ camerawoman.

"I think [getting convicted in New York] helps him more," she added, citing the "injustice" it represented.

"We just did our research and we're not brainwashed anymore by the left," Rose added.

The Lincoln Project, a consortium of anti-Trump activists on the right, also lamented the move, saying, "This is what the Republican Party has become."

Conservative "Blaze" host Steve Deace commented, "If this is winning the culture war it's for a culture I want no part of."

The Values That Made Western Society Great Came From The Bible

lost forever in America!

Right now there is a tremendous amount of debate about what values our society should embrace. There are some that are promoting the benefits of “conservative values”, there are some that are promoting the benefits of “liberal values”, and there are others that are promoting the benefits of other types of values. But if we really want to make western society great again, the truth is that we should return to the values that made western society great in the first place. Those values are the reason why western nations were the most prosperous and most civilized nations on the entire planet for centuries. And once other nations started adopting those same values, they became more prosperous and more civilized too.

The values that I am talking about are the values that we find in the Bible.

All throughout history, civilizations that have chosen to do things God's way have been blessed.

And civilizations that have chosen not to do things God's way have been cursed.

Just consider the United States. It was founded by people that loved the Bible, and throughout our history it was primarily made up of people that loved the Bible.

Of course that has changed in our day, and as a result our society is now a giant mess.

But at one time we were the most blessed nation on the entire planet by a wide margin, and that didn't happen by accident.

Centuries of experience have taught us that capitalist countries tend to be more prosperous than countries that practice various forms of collectivism.

A lot of people tend to think of socialism and communism as relatively modern movements, but the truth is that there have been collectivist societies for thousands of years.

In fact, Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels were both greatly inspired by hunter-gatherer societies that practiced "primitive communism"...

Primitive communism is a way of describing the gift economies of hunter-gatherers throughout history, where resources and property hunted or gathered are shared with all members of a group in accordance with individual needs. In political sociology and anthropology, it is also a concept (often credited to Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels), that describes hunter-gatherer societies as traditionally being based on egalitarian social relations and common ownership.<sup>[1]</sup> A primary inspiration for both Marx and Engels were Lewis H. Morgan's descriptions of "communism in living" as practised by the Haudenosaunee of North America.<sup>[2]</sup> In Marx's model of socioeconomic structures, societies with primitive communism had no hierarchical social class structures or capital accumulation.<sup>[3]</sup>

Needless to say, societies that practiced "primitive communism" never became great.

But even today, there are primitive tribes all over the globe that practice various forms of collectivism.

It doesn't work, but they still keep on trying.

Of course the same principles also don't work when entire modern nations try them.

In the Bible, from the very beginning we see buying, we see selling, and we see property rights being respected.

There is a reason why so many capitalists are fond of the Bible and so many collectivists are not.

The Bible encourages private ownership, private enterprise, individual responsibility and hard work.

Needless to say, even those that do not believe in the Bible benefit when they embrace the same economic values.

Just look at what has happened to China. In the years following the communist revolution, millions died from starvation. But once the Chinese moved in a more capitalist direction and started promoting private ownership, private enterprise, individual responsibility and hard work, China became a global economic powerhouse.

The Bible also places a very high value on family. In the Ten Commandments we are told to honor our fathers and our mothers, and throughout the rest of the Torah we are given very specific instructions about how families are to operate.

Today, much of the population has rejected the Bible and the traditional family unit is relentlessly mocked.

As a result, divorce rates have soared, birth rates have fallen to historic lows, suicide rates are at all-time record highs, alcohol and drug abuse is out of control, sex outside of marriage is rampant, and the streets of our major cities are filled with violence.

Study after study has shown that kids that come from broken homes are far more likely to commit violent crimes, they are far more likely to get involved with drugs, and they are far more likely to end up impoverished.

And societies that do not value the traditional family unit also tend not to value the lives of those that are the most vulnerable...

In ancient Greece and Rome, individual human life had no particular value in and of itself. The Spartans left weak children to die on the hillside. Infanticide was common, as it is common even today in many parts of the world. Fathers who wanted sons had few qualms about drowning their newborn daughters. Human beings were routinely bludgeoned to death or mauled by wild animals in the Roman gladiatorial arena. Many of the great classical thinkers saw nothing wrong with these practices. Christianity, on the other hand, contributed to their demise by fostering moral outrage at the mistreatment of innocent human life.

In ancient times, child sacrifice was one of the most common ways to get rid of unwanted children.

When it was time to make a sacrifice to “the gods”, children that were not wanted were brought and put on the altar.

The same thing is essentially happening today, but we give it a different name.

We call it “abortion”, and it is done behind closed doors in pristine clinical settings.

Since 1973, more than 1.5 billion children have been slaughtered worldwide. So what makes us any better than any of the ancient civilizations that regularly sacrificed their unwanted children?

The Bible very strongly denounces child sacrifice, and it also very strongly denounces the various forms of sexual immorality that are exploding in our society today.

For decades, the left has been pushing us to accept one form of sexual perversion after another.

As societal sentiment has shifted, the right has eventually gone along with most of the changes that have been happening.

But God has not changed.

He sees everything that is going on, and He has warned us over and over again to change course.

If we choose to keep going down this path, we will be cursed and the consequences will be extremely bitter.

But if we repent and change our ways we will be greatly blessed.

God always gives us a choice, and the clock is ticking.

America Is Entering End Times

AmericPaul Craig Roberts

Does anyone remember the 2020 presidential campaign? Trump campaigned widely and had massive audiences. Enthusiasm was everywhere. Biden ventured out of the basement a few times and no one attended his campaign rallies. Trump got more votes in the 2020 election than he got in the 2016 election, but Biden got more votes than any president in history. Somehow the people elected an invisible candidate.

In the swing states vote counting was stopped in the middle of the night while truck loads of boxes arrived, some from out of state, in Democrat controlled vote counting centers. The votes were almost entirely for Biden, and when counting resumed, Trump's lead disappeared.

The same thing is going to happen this November. Trump supporters, clearly a majority of legitimate voters, think Trump is going to win. Trump voters are energized and enthusiasm is high. Has anyone seen a Trump-sized turnout for Kamala? Trump will again win as he did in 2020, but Democrats count swing state votes, and Kamala will "win."

As I have reported, the prostitutes are busy at work building Kamala into a formidable candidate who is in the lead, especially in the swing states. Fake polls are being reported that Kamala is the favorite. No one has explained why American voters want open borders, war with Russia and Iran, LGBT+ celebrated and normalized, white school children taught that they and their parents are racists, and that they could be born into the wrong body.

As the Democrats have made completely clear, this is what Americans are voting for if they vote for Kamala. Unless the American people are further gone that I think, a majority are not voting for Kamala.

She will win anyway.

Biden had to go because the Democrats knew he could not run a close enough race for them to be able to again steal the election. The fact that not even the Democrats wanted Kamala last month has been consigned to the Memory Hole. Kamala is being media-created as one of the strongest presidential candidates in American history.

Republican fundraisers themselves are playing into the Democrats' election steal. I get numerous fundraising appeals—even from the usually astute Marjorie Taylor Greene—that Trump might lose because Democrats are raising more money. The opportunistic Republican fundraisers by emphasizing Trump's possible loss thus support the propaganda spun by the prostitutes that the race is so close that Trump can lose. Only Republicans can be this stupid. With Republican fundraisers agreeing with the prostitutes that the election is a toss up, the election is perfectly set to be stolen.

And it will be. In the swing states the election theft methods have been legalized.

Just as Republicans and the American people accepted the thefts of the 2020 and 2022 elections, they will accept the theft of the 2024 election. There will be no civil war or anything of the kind. The American people will have been taught that there is nothing they can do to regain their control over government.

Neither will they resist when Kamala ignores the Supreme Court, which has no army, and takes away their guns. If Americans won't resist stolen elections, they will no more resist the cancellation of the Second Amendment than they resisted the destruction of the First Amendment.

By the second year of the Kamala regime the United States will no longer exist as even a remnant of what the Founding Fathers created. The United States will be the worst tyranny ever created.

My advice to young white heterosexual males is to get out of America while you still can. A holocaust is coming your way. You are demonized and reduced to second class citizenship. You can be discriminated against in university admissions, employment and promotion. You are not allowed to defend your self from racist charges, because white self-defense is considered racist, as proof of racism. The position of a white gentile heterosexual male American today is the same as that of a Jew in Nazi Germany and a Palestinian in Gaza.

There is always hope, but hope requires warriors. Does America have warriors, or only submissive wimps?

So rioters you say country boys
are next.
You do realize country boys will sit 30 feet up a tree all day just to kill something..

Now! Here's why America is damned!

That's What Christians Do Now

www.WisconsinChristianNews.com

I've now been in full time ministry work with Wisconsin Christian News for over 25 years. For over 25 years, I've been sounding the alarm and doing my best to send out "wake up calls" to Christians, who see the evil in our land, but feel powerless to do anything about it, because they've never been trained for the work of the ministry. They've never been asked to do anything, other than greet people at the door, hand out programs, pass the collection plate or work in the nursery — all within the four walls of their own churches.

Others have been watchmen on the wall much longer than I have. Some 50 or 60 years longer than I have, and they're still faithful servants. Some have passed away since I began my work, but they served our Lord and Savior right to the end. They never "retired" from the work God set before them.

One such minister was Don Wildmon, who was the president of the American Family Association. He stepped down from that position in 2009, only because he was diagnosed with serious health issues. He passed away at the end of last year at the age of 85, though few noticed or even knew about it.

In the year 2000, as America was well on its way down the slippery slope into the pit of depravity we find ourselves in now, Don wrote an essay that I'd like to share with you here. It's called, "That's What Christians Do Now." It was meant as another one of those "wake up calls" I mentioned; and the American Church has received so many over the decades, but sadly, most pastors and churches have just continued on in their slumber. So here we are today.

I'd like to share his message with you now, and as you hear what he wrote back in the year 2000, I'd like you to consider how our nation's morality and spiritual condition has fallen deeper into the abyss than Don likely could ever have imagined back then... and yet, for most Christians, they're still doing now what they did then.

Here's what he wrote, under the title, "That's What Christians Do Now."

"In 1973 the Supreme Court said it was OK to kill unborn babies. Since then, we have killed more than the entire population of Canada. And it continues. A woman's choice? Half of those who have died in their mothers' wombs have been women. They didn't have a choice. It is called abortion.

"Me? I go to church, the pastor preaches, I go home. That's what Christians do now.

"First, it was in dingy, dirty theaters. Then, convenience stores. Then, grocery stores. Then on television. Now it's in the homes of millions via the Internet. It's called pornography.

"Me, I go to church, the pastor preaches, I go home. That's what Christians do now.

"They call it 'no-fault.' Why should we blame anyone when something so terrible happens? Haven't they already suffered enough? Half of the marriages in America end this way. The children suffered. The family broke down. It's called divorce.

"Me, I go to church, the pastor preaches, I go home. That's what Christians do now.

"At one time it was a perversion. We kept it secret. We secured help and hope for those who practiced it. Now it is praised. We have parades celebrating it, and elected officials give it their blessing. Now it is endowed with special privileges and protected by special laws. Even some Christian leaders and denominations praise it. It is called homosexuality.

"Me? I go to church, the minister preaches, I go home. That's what Christians do now.

"It used to be an embarrassment. A shame. Now a third of all births are to mothers who aren't married. Two-thirds of all African-American children are born into a home without a father. The state usually pays the tab. That's why we pay our taxes, so that government can take the place of parents. After all, government bureaucrats know much better how to raise children than parents do. It is called illegitimacy.

"Me? I go to church, the pastor preaches, I go home. That's what Christians do now.

"At one time it was wrong. But then the state decided to legalize it, promote it and tax it. It has ripped apart families and destroyed lives. But just look at all the money the state has raised. No longer do we have to teach our children to study and work hard. Now we teach them they can get something for nothing. We spend millions encouraging people to join the fun and excitement. Just look at the big sums that people are winning. They will never have to work again! It is called gambling.

"Me? I go to church, the pastor preaches, I go home. That's what Christians do now.

"Not long ago, Christians were the good guys. But now any positive image of Christians in movies or on TV is gone. We are now depicted as the bad guys — greedy, narrow-minded hypocrites. The teacher can't have a Bible on the desk, but can have Playboy. We don't have Christmas and Easter holidays — just winter and spring break. We can't pray in school, but can use foul language. It's called being tolerant.

"Me? I go to church, the pastor preaches, I go home. That's what Christians do now.

"Yes, all these things came to pass within 30 years. Where were the Christians? Why, they were in church. All these things are for someone else to deal with. Times have changed. Involvement has been replaced with apathy.

"But don't blame me. I didn't do anything. I go to church, the pastor preaches, I go home. That's what Christians do now."

Yes, unfortunately, that's what Christians do now — and have done for so many years. Jesus sent His disciples into all the world to preach the gospel and make more disciples. That small band of Christ-followers turned the world upside down and caused "no small stir" wherever they went. They were counter-cultural. They were "radicals," but they impacted the world and held back the forces of darkness, and souls were saved.

God's "Church" is meant to be a restraining force against evil, darkness and wickedness in this world. God gives His Holy Spirit and the very power of God that raised Christ from the dead lives within those who are truly, soundly saved. I have to wonder how many are truly, soundly saved in our American churches today — and how many think they are, because they've been deceived by cowardly false teachers, who tell them God requires nothing of them, and as I said, they're never taught or asked to do anything outside the four walls of those buildings.

Our lifetimes in this world are short, just a vapor, Scripture tells us. They go so quickly, yet so much can happen in a lifetime. We can "turn the world upside down" and cause "no small stir" within the culture — holding back the deluge of evil Satan has always sought to bring upon this earth, or one can simply go to church, listen to the pastor talk and then go home.

The risen Christ spoke of the Church of Laodicea in Revelation 3. His description fits the modern American Church to a tee: "I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth." In other words, lukewarm people make Jesus sick. They cause Him to vomit.

As we look around at our nation and our world today, we should be ashamed of ourselves for sitting back in lives of luxury and ease and doing nothing for the kingdom of God. And one day, when we stand before the Lord, we certainly will be ashamed. But for most, it hasn't been entirely their fault. They were never told. Truth never reached their ears. Their pastors never spoke, nor did they train them up, nor did they ever lead them out of the church house and into the culture to confront wickedness and stand against evil. Not even once. The pastors should have been the shepherds, leading their flocks. Instead, they just kept them "penned up" in stained-glass sanctuaries while the government removed God from every institution and enterprise, and replaced Him with abomination.

One might say it was up to the individual to read the Bible for themselves, to study for themselves, and show themselves approved workmen, who need not be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth. But that was never taught either, or even encouraged. The most precious writings we have, directly from God Almighty Himself, have just been sitting in most American homes for years, collecting dust. Most who attend church don't even bother bringing a Bible with them anymore; whatever cherry-picked Scriptures the pastor might want to build his "talk" around are put up on the projector screen, and then quickly forgotten. No need for deeper study.

Charles Finney once said, "If there is a decay of conscience, the pulpit is responsible for it. If the public press lacks moral discernment, the pulpit is responsible for it. If the Church is degenerate and worldly, the pulpit is responsible for it. If the world loses its interest in Christianity, the pulpit is responsible for it. If Satan rules in our halls of legislation, the pulpit is responsible for it. If our politics become so corrupt that the very foundations of our government are ready to fall away, the pulpit is responsible for it." Indeed. One of the greatest frustrations in my life is that our pastors have so much power to direct and lead the public discourse, but they refuse, preferring instead to be well-liked and popular among the people.

Today we have a raging LGBTQP+ movement, and we may disagree with it, but don't dare say so for fear of being thought of as "bigoted." Today we have hard-core pornography in our schools, pushed by the teachers, and few will show up at a school board meeting to object, or dare speak against it. Today we have mentally ill people who can't even say for sure whether they're male or female, and laws have been made to punish those who would speak truth about it. Today we have a federal government beast system that's more corrupt than any government in history. It's clearly wicked and evil, yet we still obey it without question.

There are ministries out there that really do teach and train people to be bold, courageous leaders wherever they are, whatever they do, however old or young they may be. But these ministries are not located in your local church. But as an individual, you can connect with them, whatever your particular area of interest or calling of God may be. There are ministries saving unborn babies, ministries to those in prison, ministries for those trapped by addiction, ministries to the victims of the LGBTQP+ and "transgender" movements, ministries for families and those with troubled marriages, ministries to rescue children and adults who are victims of sex trafficking and satanic ritual abuse, and so many more. But they're not in your church.

Wherever God is calling you to serve in His kingdom today, there are many excellent organizations out there that you can join. They'll train you for the work of the ministry, lead you out and show you how to do it. You can have a life-changing and soul-saving ministry work of your own, but you'll need to do the work to learn how; and you'll have to step out of your comfort zone, muster the courage to engage with those who will not agree with you, and get busy. But the time is now. When you stand before Jesus at the end of this life, I truly hope you'll have more to say than, "I went to church. The pastor preached. I went home." You were saved to serve.

Royce and Frankie King kiss at their wedding, 77 years late. St. Croix Hospice

When Royce and Frankie King wed in 1944, they didn't have time to plan a big wedding or take photos. On their 77th anniversary, staff members at St. Croix Hospice in Iowa helped them recreate their 1944 nuptials and take the wedding photos they never had.

"It was so hard to keep from crying behind the lens as I got to witness the emotion with this beautiful couple, and the love and compassion that their team poured into preparing this event for them," photographer and St. Croix staff member Hilary Michelson said in a statement. "That's what our team strives to do at St. Croix Hospice. We go above and beyond for our patients and their families to ensure that their focus is on the quality of life and making each day and each memory count."

American Indian Tea - NOW ONLY $100 for a 4-5 month supply!!

This botanical contains naturally occurring biochemicals which stimulates the body's production of mono and cytokines which simulate what would happen if a serious infection were in progress. It aids in the removal of toxins in the liver and body, has anti-tumor and anti-cancer benefits. The presence of the glucanoids explains the strong anti-tumor effects of the Tea. Polysaccharides are present that seem to imitate interferon and interleukin (the "good guys"). The Tea is also an anti-inflammatory as the natural steroids that the Tea produces, are useful in the treatment of arthritis and painful autoimmune and inflammatory diseases. The Tea has these benefits in therapeutic quantities. The Tea is also an overall body detox. The dietary fibers that are chitinous substances are present in large quantities. These components have a chelation/absorption effect on any toxic material that is left in the bowels and this helps hasten the removal of these toxins. The body will produce many times the "normal" number of neutrophils when drinking the Tea. When these WBC flow into the blood stream they are expecting to locate an infection and they are programmed to kill only those that have the markers that they recognize as an enemy. If the neutrophils find no infection, they then set about the business of survival to seek out anything that may be wrong and then their job is to repair it (healing or correcting rogue cells that cause autoimmune disease). The American Indian Tea contains a lot of natural Germanium which is a powerful antioxidant, anti-cancer & anti-mutagen and oxygen catalyst.
